How to Share This Book

Social stories gently walk a child through a situation and model calm, kind choices. Read this book together, more than once. The repetition is what helps - it lets a child rehearse the feelings and choices before the real moment happens.

This book helps a child understand the feeling, see that it is normal, and practice calm, kind choices - before the real moment happens.

How to use it

- Read the story slowly and out loud, pointing at the pictures.
- Read it again on calm days - not only in the hard moment.
- Pause to let your child color, answer, or act out the pages.
- Praise effort and calm tries, not perfection.
- Use the calm-down tools together so they feel familiar later.

The Story

When I Feel Angry

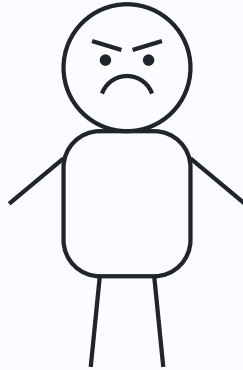

Hi! My name is Sam.

Most of the time I feel just fine.

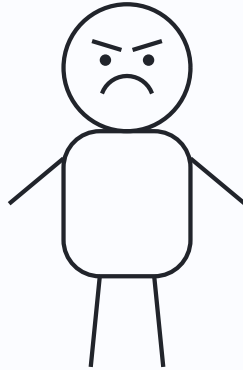

But sometimes I feel ANGRY.

Anger is a normal feeling. Everybody feels it sometimes.

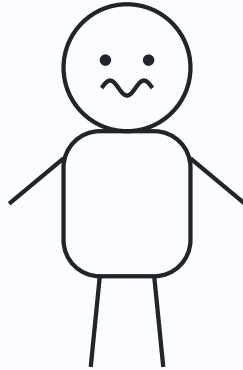

When I get angry, my face feels hot.

My hands squeeze into tight fists. My tummy feels tight too.

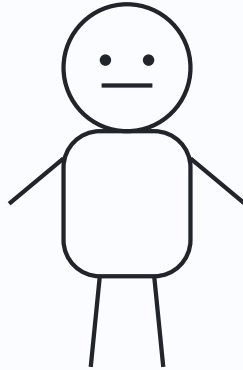

Sometimes I want to yell, or hit, or throw things.

But those choices can hurt me or other people.

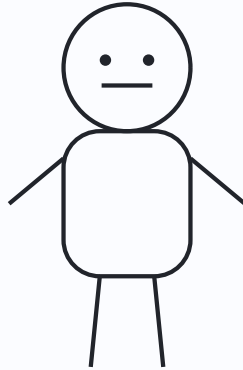

Anger is okay to FEEL.

It is not okay to hurt myself or others. So I have a better plan.

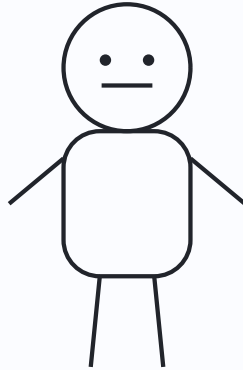

First, I STOP.

I notice my angry body and I do not act right away.

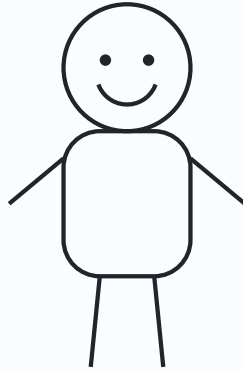

Then I take a big, slow breath.

I breathe in slowly... and out even slower. My body starts to cool down.

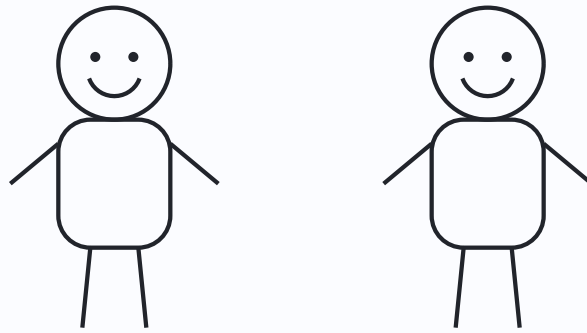

I can also count to ten, ask for a hug, or take a break.

I can tell a grown-up, 'I feel angry.'

When I am calm again, I can use my words.

I can say what is wrong and ask for help fixing it.

I am the boss of my body.

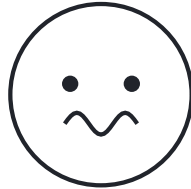

I can feel angry AND still make a calm, kind choice. I can do it!

How Does Anger Feel?

Color each face. Say the feeling out loud.

Calm

Annoyed

Frustrated

Angry

Hurt

Happy Again

My Calming Cards (Set 1)

Cut out these cards. Keep them close for when you feel angry.

1 Stop

Freeze and notice your angry body.

2 Breathe

Take 3 big, slow belly breaths.

3 Count

Count slowly to ten.

4 Walk Away

Step away to a calm spot to cool off.

My Calming Cards (Set 2)

More calming cards to try.

1 Squeeze

Squeeze a pillow or push your hands together.

2 Ask for Help

Tell a grown-up, 'I feel angry.'

3 Use Words

Say, 'I feel angry because...'

4 Get a Drink

Sip some cool water and reset.

Balloon Breathing

Trace the shape slowly with your finger while you breathe. Do it a few times until your body feels calmer.

1. Breathe in slowly and fill your belly like a balloon.
2. Hold for a moment.
3. Breathe out slowly and let the balloon go soft.
4. Do it 3-5 times until you feel calmer.

What Would You Do?

Read each situation together. There are many good choices! Talk it through, then write or draw what you could do.

- 1 Your block tower falls down right before it was finished.

What could you do?

- 2 Your brother changes the TV channel while you were watching.

What could you do?

- 3 You lose a game and feel like giving up.

What could you do?

More Angry Moments

Read each situation together. There are many good choices! Talk it through, then write or draw what you could do.

1 Someone cuts in front of you in line.

What could you do?

2 You get told 'no' when you really wanted a yes.

What could you do?

3 A friend accidentally knocks over your drawing.

What could you do?

My Calm-Down Toolkit

Out of all the tools in this book, which ones help YOU most? Draw or write your top tools here so you remember them when a big feeling comes.
