How to Share This Book

Social stories gently walk a child through a situation and model calm, kind choices. Read this book together, more than once. The repetition is what helps - it lets a child rehearse the feelings and choices before the real moment happens.

This book helps a child understand the feeling, see that it is normal, and practice calm, kind choices - before the real moment happens.

How to use it

- ☐ Read the story slowly and out loud, pointing at the pictures.
- ☐ Read it again on calm days - not only in the hard moment.
- ☐ Pause to let your child color, answer, or act out the pages.
- ☐ Praise effort and calm tries, not perfection.
- ☐ Use the calm-down tools together so they feel familiar later.

The Story

It's Okay to Ask for Help

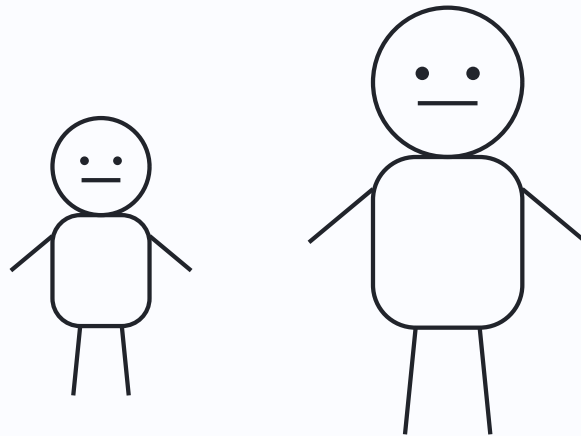

Sometimes I get stuck, or hurt, or scared.

I might not know what to do all by myself.

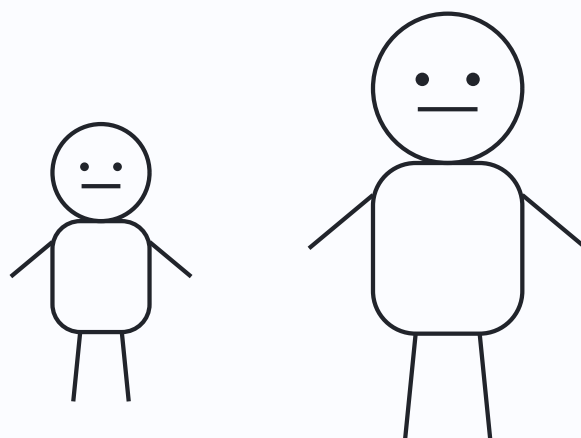

I used to think asking for help meant I wasn't big.

But that is not true at all.

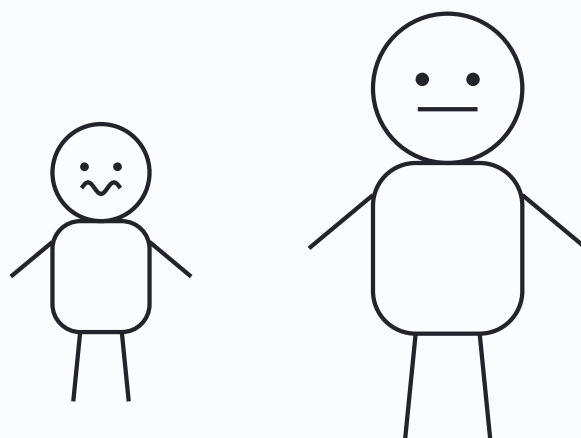

Asking for help is a SMART and BRAVE thing to do.

Even grown-ups ask each other for help.

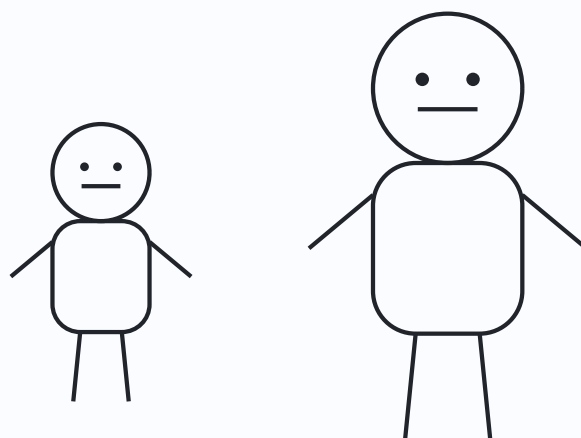

First, I find a safe grown-up.

That could be a parent, teacher, coach, or helper.

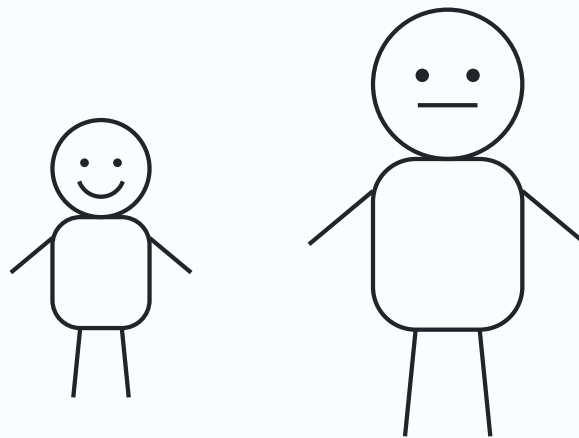

I get their attention politely.

I can say their name, or say, 'Excuse me, can you help me?'

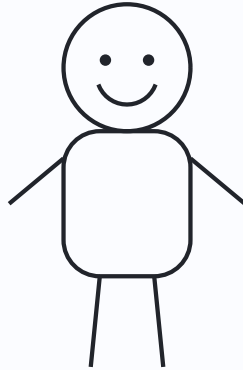

Then I tell them what I need in a few words.

'I feel...' or 'I need help with...' or 'Something happened.'

The grown-up listens and helps.

I feel so much better once I ask.

If the first grown-up can't help right away, I can try another.
I keep asking until I get the help I need.

My Safe Grown-Ups

● Safe grown-ups at home are...

● Safe grown-ups at school are...

● Other helpers I can find are...

Role-Play Cards

Act these out with a grown-up. Take turns being the helper.

1 I'm hurt

Practice: 'I fell and my knee hurts.'

2 I'm stuck

Practice: 'I can't reach it. Can you help?'

3 I'm scared

Practice: 'Something scared me. I need you.'

4 I'm lost

Practice: 'I can't find my grown-up.'

5 Someone's unkind

Practice: 'Someone is being mean to me.'

6 I don't understand

Practice: 'Can you show me how?'

Helping Words to Trace

Trace the words. Then say them out loud.

Can you help me?

Excuse me.

I need help.

What Would You Do?

Read each situation together. There are many good choices! Talk it through, then write or draw what you could do.

- 1 You fall on the playground and your knee hurts.

What could you do?

- 2 You can't open your lunch and you're hungry.

What could you do?

- 3 You feel scared but the grown-up is busy.

What could you do?

My Help Plan

● When I need help, the words I can say are...

● If one grown-up is busy, I can ask...

● A time I asked for help and it went well was...

My Calm-Down Toolkit

Out of all the tools in this book, which ones help YOU most? Draw or write your top tools here so you remember them when a big feeling comes.
