How to Share This Book

Social stories gently walk a child through a situation and model calm, kind choices. Read this book together, more than once. The repetition is what helps - it lets a child rehearse the feelings and choices before the real moment happens.

This book helps a child understand the feeling, see that it is normal, and practice calm, kind choices - before the real moment happens.

How to use it

- ☐ Read the story slowly and out loud, pointing at the pictures.
- ☐ Read it again on calm days - not only in the hard moment.
- ☐ Pause to let your child color, answer, or act out the pages.
- ☐ Praise effort and calm tries, not perfection.
- ☐ Use the calm-down tools together so they feel familiar later.

The Story

When Things Don't Go My Way

Sometimes I lose a game, or things don't go my way.

It feels DISAPPOINTING - like a heavy, sinking feeling.

Disappointment is a real feeling, and it's okay to feel it.

Even grown-ups feel it. It does not mean anything is wrong with me.

Sometimes losing makes me want to quit, cry, or get angry.

Those big feelings make sense. But I get to choose what I do next.

First, I take a slow breath and name it: 'I feel disappointed.'

Naming the feeling helps it feel a little smaller.

I can be a good sport.

I can say 'good game' and mean it, even when I lose.

Losing is a chance to learn.

I can ask, 'What can I try differently next time?'

One game does not decide who I am.

I can enjoy playing, win or lose. Trying again is what matters.

Disappointed Feelings

Good-Sport Scenario Cards

Cut out and talk through each card. What is a good-sport choice?

1 You lose a race

You worked hard but came last. What now?

2 Game night loss

You lose a board game to your sibling.

3 Not picked

You don't get chosen for the part you wanted.

4 Rained out

Your big plan gets cancelled.

5 Lower score

You got a lower grade than you hoped.

6 Friend wins

Your friend beats you at your favorite game.

Calm-Down Breathing

Trace the shape slowly with your finger while you breathe. Do it a few times until your body feels calmer.

1. Breathe in slowly for 4.
2. Breathe out slowly for 6 - longer than the in-breath.
3. Feel the disappointment settle a little.
4. Repeat until you feel calmer.

Turning a Loss Into a Lesson

● A time I felt disappointed was...

● What I did with that feeling...

● What I could try differently next time...

My Good-Sport Plan

● When I lose, I can say...

● To calm my body I can...

● One thing I am proud of, win or lose, is...

My Calm-Down Toolkit

Out of all the tools in this book, which ones help YOU most? Draw or write your top tools here so you remember them when a big feeling comes.
